303 S. Alameda Blvd., Las Cruces

The innovative, award-winning Artist, and El Paso native, David Alan Boyd, debuts new work from the Mesilla Valley, in this one-day Salon on November 28th, from 10:30 AM to 6:00 PM. “Light and Shadow” will feature large and small works inspired by the landscape and daily life in the Mesilla Valley and Old Mesilla.

The Salon provides a rare opportunity to meet the artist, and to enjoy and purchase art in a relaxed environment. Artwork will be available in a wide range of prices to fit any budget.

David is a multi-disciplinary artist whose work is based on digital photographic imagery. This work includes both traditional photographic prints, and multi-image “polyptychs” using a variety of image sources and materials. David will be featured, along with the internationally renowned, Las Cruces artist Carlos Estrada Vega, in the exhibit Light, Color, Space, Motion at the Las Cruces Museum of Art in May of 2016
